

2024 New Testament Reading Plan

In 2024, we will read the New Testament with a twist. Instead of reading all four gospels one after another, we will scatter the four gospels throughout the year. Intertwined between gospel accounts will be Luke's writings, Paul's letters, and the letters written by others. We will conclude with John's writings. Order:

1. Luke, Acts - both written by Luke
2. Galatians, 1 Thessalonians, 2 Thessalonians, 1 Corinthians, Romans, 2 Corinthians, Ephesians, Colossians, Philippians, Philemon, 1 Timothy, Titus, 2 Timothy - all of these were written by Paul to churches or individuals and are presented in the order in which we believe they were written.
3. Mark, James, 1 Peter, 2 Peter, Jude - a gospel account and general epistles (letters)
4. Matthew, Hebrews - the gospel account written for Hebrews and the letter to the Hebrews
5. John, 1 John, 2 John, 3 John, Revelation- the writings of John

The readings are five days a week. You are encouraged to reread and meditate upon a portion of the readings from that last week or read a psalm or proverb. On Sunday morning, each is encouraged to read the lesson to be taught in Life Group that morning.
